ATTENTION CUSTOMERS

When dimensions are critical please specify and we will do our best to provide you with the exact piece of glass/mirror, even then, minimal difference in dimensional measurements may occur. Please take the time to deduct the necessary measurements in the glass/ mirror especially if they will be set inside a table, frame, etc. Customer will be liable for any other expenses which may occur when sanding down, cutting down, polishing or even replacements.

The table below reflects the industrial standard for tolerances of glass & mirrors permitted

Glass Tolerances:
